The MSU softball team traveled to Kingsville this past weekend to compete in the Javelina Classic hosted by Texas A&M-Kingsville.

Along with the Lady Mustangs the two day tournament also included TAMUK and St. Edward's.

On Sunday afternoon MSU (13-5) handled St. Edwards, 2-1 to complete the tournament with a 3-1 record.

St. Edwards got on the board first in the 5th inning as Melissa McSheffery stole homebase on an error at third.

The Lady Mustangs rebounded in the 6th as Lindsey Voigt and Kristen Stonecipher scored off a double to left field by Kelli Shaw.

Freshman pitcher Katie Peterson earned the win as she improved to 7-5 on the season with a 0.98 earned run average. She struck out 16 batters during the tournament.

Earlier in the day MSU took on TAMUK.

The Lady Mustangs wasted no time as they scored two runs in the 1st inning.

Jessica Rodriguez scored on an unearned run and Stonecipher scored on a throwing error by TAMUK's Sally Lozano.

MSU added two more scores and TAMUK was unable to catch up as the Lady Mustangs took a 4-3 win.

Pitcher Ashley Kuchenski stayed perfect on the year as she pushed her record to 6-0. She posts a 1.71 ERA and struck out 14 batters this weekend.

On Saturday the Lady Mustangs split games.

Midwestern beat SEU in 10 innings, 2-1 and fell to TAMUK, 3-2 later in the day.

Along with Stonecipher and Shaw first baseman Amanda Hill was cited for performing well in the tournament with a .357 batting average with five hits, one double and two RBIs.

MSU travels to Edmond, OK tonight to take on Central Oklahoma in a doubleheader. The first game is set for 1 p.m.
